Description

Discover the perfect blend of power and versatility with the 2026 Ford Ranger 2.0 Biturbo Supercab Wildtrak 4x4, finished in a sleek Carbonized Grey. This robust vehicle is designed to tackle any terrain with confidence, thanks to its advanced 2.0-liter turbo diesel engine that delivers an impressive 154 kW of power and a substantial 500 Nm of torque. The efficient i4 engine and 80-liter fuel tank ensure a remarkable average fuel consumption of 7.5 L/100 km, providing a potential range of 1,067 km on a single fill-up ideal for both long road trips and everyday commutes. Built to meet the demands of adventure and practicality, the Ranger Wildtrak features a spacious Supercab layout, offering ample room for passengers and cargo alike. Its 4x4 capability ensures you can handle challenging road conditions with ease, while a comprehensive warranty provides peace of mind. Whether navigating urban streets or exploring off-road trails, this Ford Ranger combines rugged performance with modern efficiency, making it an exceptional choice for drivers seeking reliability and versatility in their next vehicle.
