Description

This 2025 Ford Ranger 2.0 XL Double Cab Automatic offers the perfect balance of modern design, everyday comfort, and proven durability. As part of Ford’s latest-generation Ranger range, it delivers a refined driving experience while still offering the toughness the Ranger name is known for. Powered by the efficient and responsive 2.0-litre turbo diesel engine paired with a smooth automatic transmission, this Ranger is easy to drive both in town and on longer journeys. The Double Cab layout provides excellent space for passengers while still offering a practical load bin, making it ideal for work, family use, or weekend activities. The XL specification includes a well-designed, modern interior with advanced technology and safety features, ensuring a comfortable and secure drive. The vehicle drives like new and presents extremely well, reflecting its recent model year. If you’re looking for a reliable, versatile, and modern double cab bakkie with low running costs and strong resale value, this 2025 Ford Ranger 2.0 XL Automatic is an excellent choice.
