Description

This 2025 Ford Puma 1.0T EcoBoost Titanium Automatic is a modern, stylish compact SUV presented in like-new condition, combining everyday practicality with fun, efficient performance. Powered by Ford's responsive 1.0-litre EcoBoost turbo engine and paired with a smooth automatic transmission, this Puma delivers confident acceleration and excellent fuel economy — perfect for urban driving and longer journeys alike. The Titanium specification adds a premium feel with enhanced comfort, technology, and convenience features. Inside you'll find a thoughtfully designed cabin with quality finishes, intuitive controls, and a comfortable layout for driver and passengers. The elevated driving position and sleek exterior styling make the Puma stand out in its class. If you're looking for a well-equipped, fuel-efficient, and near-new compact SUV that's ready for immediate use, this 2025 Ford Puma Titanium Automatic is an excellent choice, stylish, practical, and highly desirable.
