Description

Introducing the new Suzuki Ignis 1.2 GLX, a stylish and practical cross-over ready to elevate your driving experience. With only 10 km on the clock, this silver beauty is fresh from the factory and packed with features. Its sleek design is complemented by a spacious interior and smooth manual transmission, offering a maximum speed of 165 km/h. The Ignis is powered by a lively 61 kW petrol engine that delivers impressive fuel efficiency, averaging 5.1 litres per 100 km, with a generous fuel range of around 628 km. Stay comfortable with climate control, air conditioning, and electric windows, while safety is assured with standard ABS and two airbags. The inclusion of Apple CarPlay and Android Auto means you can seamlessly connect your smartphone for effortless entertainment and navigation. Parking is a breeze thanks to the rear-view camera, and the vehicle's compact cross-over body makes it perfect for urban adventures or weekend getaways. This Suzuki Ignis is available now at Eshowe Ford in Kwazulu Natal. Whether you're commuting or exploring, this reliable and fun vehicle is ready to hit the road with you.
