Description

The 2026 Ford Ranger 2.0D XL HR A/T Super Cab is built for businesses and professionals who need strength, practicality, and everyday reliability. Its efficient 2.0-litre diesel engine delivers solid torque and low running costs, while the automatic transmission ensures smooth, effortless driving on worksites or long routes. The High-Rider stance provides excellent ground clearance and road presence, and the Super Cab design offers extra loading flexibility with added interior storage. With modern connectivity, essential safety features, and Ford's proven durability, this Ranger is a dependable partner for contractors, fleets, and hardworking owners who need capability without compromise.
