Description

This 2026 Ford Ranger 2.0 SiT Double Cab XL Auto in Carbonized Grey is a smart choice for buyers who want a bakkie that is both capable and carefully maintained. Backed by a factory warranty and a full franchise service history, it offers strong peace of mind on reliability and running costs. The proven 2.0 turbo diesel delivers 125 kW and 405 Nm, with an average consumption of just 7.5 l/100 km and an impressive theoretical range of around 1 067 km from the 80 litre tank. The smooth automatic gearbox, rear park distance control and cruise control make daily driving and long trips easier and more comfortable. With its practical double cab layout, this Ranger is ready for work, family or leisure. A well looked after, late model Ranger like this is in high demand, so secure it quickly to take advantage of its excellent condition, low running costs and strong value.
